Numb. 1859

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday September 10 to Thursday September 13, 1683.

Whitehall, September 12.

THe following Addreſſes having been preſented to His Majeſty, His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Nobility, Gentry, and Freeholders of Your Majeſties County of Warwick.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt humble and Affectionately Loyal Subjects, notwithſtanding the late Addreſſes from the Lieutenancy, Grand-Juries, and Corporations in our County; Think it ſtill a Duty incumbent upon us in our whole Body, to render our unfeigned thanks to the Almighty God, for preſerving Your Sacred Perſon, and Your moſt Dear and Royal Brother, from the late Helliſh Conſpiracy, which was contrived and endeavoured to have been effected by Conventiclers and other Factious and Traiterous Perſons of Commonwealth Principles. In all humility we beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that from the bottom of our Hearts we abhor all Aſſociations, that have been contrived or carried on by Traiterous Lords, diſaffected Commoners, or the unruly and giddy Multitude; Declaring that we will be ever ready to the utmoſt of our Abilities to ſerve Your Majeſty, Your Heirs Lineally deſcended from the Crown, and to ſupport Your Government both in Church and State; and as occaſion ſhall offer, we will teſtifie the ſame by our Actions as well as Words. And as there has of late been Publiſht a baſe, ſcandalous, and ſeditious Speech, in the name of the late Lord Ruſſel, immediately after his juſt Execution; We cannot but ſtand amazed to think ſo much Impudence and Folly durſt preſume to Vindicate that Lord, when that Paper is filled with nothing but Vanity, fooliſh Contradictions, and intended Malice. However, we hope, not only this County, but the whole Kingdom, and all other Dominions under Your Majeſties moſt Auguſt and happy Government, is truly ſenſible what a Monſtrous ſort of Vipers there has of late been amongſt us; And that the Old Shams and Tricks of the Canting Fanaticks will no more prevail amongſt us: But that Religion and Loyalty may be joyned together both in publick and private Prayers to the Almighty God, for the continuation to Your Majeſty of a long and proſperous Reign over us: And that Ignominy and Confuſion may light upon the Heads of all Schiſmatical and Anarchical Perſons; Which is the daily Prayers of Your Majeſties moſt Obedient and ever Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the whole Militia, Clergy, and Gentry of the City of Cheſter.

Dread Soveraign,

WE having with great Aſtoniſhment heard of a curſed Conſpiracy for the Aſſaſſination of your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, and the Perſon of your Deareſt Brother, His Royal Highneſs James Duke of York, cannot chooſe but be highly affected with Joy, when we conſider God's wonderful Providences in protecting your Majeſty, amidſt ſo many threatning Dangers, and Deviliſh Combinations, but the ſame time, we cannot but grieve for theſe ungrateful Returns unto your Majeſties Mercy, and that notwithſtanding the benign Influences of your Royal Grace, theſe evil Spirits are not yet laid, but the Sword of Juſtice muſt ſtill be unſheath'd to cut off Traiterous and Diſloyal Subjects. May that Great God, by whom Kings Reign, be ſtill your Majeſties mighty Defender, againſt the bloody Attempts of Schiſmatical Conventiclers, and perfidious Politicians, who under a ſpecious Pretext of Reforming the Church, and bettering the Government, cover their Damnable Deſigns of Confuſion and Anarchy, endeavouring thereby to render the Reformed Religion it ſelf, and this moſt excellent Conſtitution of Government, the very ſcorn and obliquy of Hereticks and Infidels. And may it pleaſe your Majeſty graciouſly to accept theſe our deep and juſt Reſentments of this Bloody Conſpiracy, together with our unanimous Proteſtation, that neither the threatnings nor allurements of diſaffected men, ſhall ever ſhake our Allegiance, or ſo far violate our Conſciences, as to work us into any thoughts of altering the Government either in Church or State; but we are fully reſolved (by Gods help) to manifeſt our Loyalty to the whole World, by a ready obedience to, and vigorous Defence, of your Majeſties Royal Perſon, your Heirs and lawful Succeſſors, againſt all Plots, Aſſaſſinations, Conſpiracies, and Treacheries of Atheiſts, Papiſts, Diſſenters, and bare Pretenders to Religion and Loyalty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of your Majeſties ancient and Loyal Borough of Cockermouth in your County of Cumberland.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

TO permit us amongſt the reſt of your Honeſt and Loyal Subjects, to approach your Royal Preſence, with an unfeigned tender of our Lives and Fortunes, to be readily imployed in the defence of your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, and unalterable Hereditary Government, againſt the Fanatical and Traiterous Principles of thoſe accurſed Projectors, who labour by ungrounded Jealouſies, to eſtabliſh their beloved Democracy, the very worſt of Tyrannies.

We could not, without a great deal of Horror and Deteſtation, take a Proſpect of that moſt Barbarous and ingrateful Deſign (moſt providentially diſcovered) againſt your Majeſty (the beſt and moſt merciful King in the World) and your only Royal and Deareſt Brother, the Illuſtrious Prince James Duke of York.

It is our unſpeakable Felicity that we live under the gentle Influences of a Prince, who does not only Protect our Lives and Property from the bold Invaſions of unjuſt Perſons, but our Religion alſo from all Foreign Tinctures either of Rome or Geneva.

Monarchy and Hierarchy have moſt unqueſtionably been the Government of this Nation ever ſince our Primitive Chriſtianity. And although the Antimonarchical Faction have (of late) ſo far prevailed, as to tempt many unthinking Perſons to a forgetfulneſs of this, and the Duties that reſult from it, yet the Intreagues of the Faction being now laid open by your Majeſties Princely Care and Vigilance, the deluded Vulgar do now begin with Horror to Survey thoſe Precipices of Ruine, into which they were ready to tumble.

The Miſts which thoſe Religious Juglers had caſt before their Eyes, are now diſſipated to that excellent and long wiſhed degree, that whenſoever your Majeſty ſhall, in your Princely wiſdom think fit to call a Parliament, your Majeſty will ſo far be, from running the hazard of encountring Seditious and unwarrantable Votes, that all thoſe places which are Honored and entruſted with Power of ſending Repreſentatives to that Honorable Aſſembly, will chooſe ſuch Perſons, as in their common

common Diſcourſes and Practices, give the faireſt hopes and Teſtimony of their Loyalty and Submiſſion.

We wiſh for ſuch a Proof of Obedience from all our Fellow-Subjects, and do faithfully ingage for our ſelves, that when your Majeſty ſhall pleaſe to call your great Council, we ſhall elect ſuch Members for this our ancient and Loyal Borough, as ſhall comply with your Majeſties Juſt and Honorable Deſigns, and enable you to aſſert and vindicate your own, and the Nations Honor, againſt all Foreign and Domeſtick Oppoſitions.

May your Majeſties Reign over us, be long, flouriſhing and Proſperous: May the Succeſſion of your Imperial Crown never be interrupted, nor ſo much as ever any more be called in Queſtion: May the Religion already eſtabliſhed amongſt us by Law be inviolably preſerved to us and our Poſterity; And may thoſe Atheiſtical Perſons, and their Fellow-Conſpirators (who have occaſioned to your Majeſty, the trouble of this and all other Addreſſes to the like purpoſe) learn from the many Defeats of their wicked purpoſes, Leſſons of Loyalty and true Obedience to your Majeſty, and your Officers in Church and State, and to yours and their Succeſſors. Theſe, Great Sir, are the heart and unfeigned Wiſhes, and daily Prayers of,

Moſt Dread Soveraign,
Your moſt Loyal, and moſt Obedient Subjects.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and other the Inhabitants of Your Majeſties ancient Borough of Arrundell in the County of Suſſex.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being truly ſenſible of the Horrid, Bloody, and Treaſonable Conſpiracies for the Deſtruction and Murthering of Your Sacred Majeſty, and Your Royal Brother James Duke of York now lately diſcovered to be deſigned contrived, and carried on by ſeveral ſorts of deſperate, bloody, and wicked minded Perſons, thereby to extirpate Your Royal Family, and ſo to ruine and ſubvert this ancient and flouriſhing Monarchy (which we pray God long to continue to the comfort of all Your Majeſties Loyal Subjects) and to bring Confuſion and Deſolation upon this and all other Your Majeſties Kingdoms by imbrewing Your Majeſties Subjects in Blood, and levying a Civil War; do from the bottom of our hearts with unexpreſſable Joy, acknowledge Gods great mercy towards us in the timely diſcovery of ſuch Helliſh Plottings, and the bleſſed and miraculous deliverance of Your Sacred Perſon and Royal Brother from the malicious Deſigns of Your Majeſties and our Enemies. And we ſhall ever be ready, according to our Duty, for the Preſervation, and in defence of Your Majeſties Royal Perſon, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, and Your Government both in Church and State, as by Law now eſtabliſhed, againſt all Treaſonable Conſpiracies, and Traiterous Aſſociations, chearfully and heartily to expoſe and Sacrifice both our Lives and Fortunes, and continually offer up our humble and fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that Your Majeſty may live long, to raign proſperouſly, happily, and glorioully over us; In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto ſubſcribed our Names, and cauſed the Common Seal of this Borough to be hereunto ſet, this one and twentieth day of July in the Five and thirtieth year of Your Majeſties Raign, &c, Annoq; Dom. 1683.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Dread Soveraign,

WE your Majeſties moſt Loyal, Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects, the Aldermen, Recorder, Comburgers, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of your Antient Town and Corporation of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln. Having formerly with all Humility Addreſſed our ſelves to your Majeſty, and now upon a late Diſcovery of a moſt Trayterous Conſpiracy againſt the Perſon of your Sacred Majeſty, your Crown and Dignity, and againſt the Perſon of His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York. We do again moſt humbly Addreſs our ſelves to your Sacred Majeſty, with the offers of our moſt hearty Thanks to Almighty God for his late Preſervation of your Majeſty and His Royal Highneſs, from the Bloody Deſigns of thoſe Traiterous Conſpirators: And do humbly beg of your Majeſty, that you would be gratiouſly pleaſed to accept the Real Proffers of our Lives and Fortunes in Defence and Preſervation of your Majeſties Royal Perſon and Government, your lawful Heirs and Succeſſors, and of the Religion of the Church of England, as is now eſtabliſhed. And we do further promiſe your Majeſty, that whenſoever you ſhall think fit to call your Great Council in Parliament, we will chooſe ſuch Burgeſſes to aſſiſt in the ſame, on whoſe Loyalty and hearty Intentions, to agree with us in all Points of this our ſincere and humble Addreſs, we may confide and rely. And we in all Humility Subſcribe our ſelves

Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful
and Loyal Subjects,

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of Wilts, at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County at the City of New-Sarum, the twentieth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majeſties Reign.

Moſt Gracious Soveraign,

SInce Your Majeſty was pleaſed to accept at the like Meeting, our hearty Abhorrence of an Aſſociation againſt your Government, only in Scheme, as it then appeared, and now to our Aſtoniſhment and Indignation, finding it really deſigned for an unparalelled Conſpiracy againſt your Majeſties Sacred Perſon and Illuſtrious Brother, and through your Royal Family, againſt all your good Subjects; we with Impatience have waited for this Opportunity, with all Humility to offer up, as the unanimous and loud cry of your Loyal County of Wilts, our utmoſt Deteſtation of this Bloody contrivance, thoſe Blackeſt of Treaſons, (ſo miraculouſly diſcovered by the hand of God, and ſo prudently defeated ſince, by the great Wiſdom of your Majeſty) carried on by many of thoſe Men, who the better to Palliate their moſt wicked Deſigns, ſeem'd heretofore to be moſt ſolicitous for the Preſervation of your Majeſties Life and Government. We do moſt earneſtly beſeech your Majeſty to believe, that no Pretence, how ſpecious ſoever, ſhall make us ſwerve in the leaſt from our Duty and Allegiance to your Majeſty, and your lawful Succeſſors. And we moſt ſincerely offer up our Prayers to Almighty God, who hath ſo often delivered your Majeſty from ſo many imminent Dangers, to continue your Majeſty and Royal Family over us in theſe Kingdoms unto the Worlds end.

We the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Wilts, with others, do humbly and heartily concur with this Addreſs.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Devizes in the County of Wilts.

Dread Soveraign,

WE your Majeſties Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, being deeply ſenſible of that damnable Plot and Traiterous Conſpiracy againſt the Life of Your Sacred Perſon, and of Your Deareſt Brother, and againſt your Government in Church and State, lately diſcovered to us, as well by your Majeſties Royal Proclamation, as by Legal Conviction of divers of the Traitors therein concerned, Do return our hearty thanks to Almighty God, that He hath ſo wonderfully brought to light thoſe black and helliſh Deeds of Darkneſs, to the great comfort and ſatisfaction of us and all other your Majeſties Loyal Subjects, but to the ſhame and confuſion of the Contrivers thereof, who under the greateſt pretences for Religion, and Loyal Affection to the Government, by ſuch their Treaſons, deſigned nothing leſs than the utter Extirpation of both; We do therefore from the bottom of our Hearts, declare our utter deteſtation and abhorrency of ſuch Traiterous Conſpiracies, and do moſt humbly aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall always with a ſtedfaſt and conſtant Loyalty, to the utmoſt of our power, Defend Your Majeſty, Your lawful Heirs and Succeſſors, and Your Government in Church and State, as now by Law Eſtabliſhed; And we hope that all others whom their Duty and Intereſt hath not hitherto obliged them thereunto, out of a due ſenſe and conſideration of thoſe diſmal and fatal Conſequences of ſuch Treaſons, for the Preſervation of Your Majeſty and Government, will for ever hereafter be more firmly united.

To

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Loyal Inhabitants within the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardness, with other of the Neighbouring Gentlemen and Free men of the said Corporation.

Great Sir,

THat we were no forwarder in our Dutiful Congratulations for the signal Deliverance of Your Sacred Person, and the Person of Your Dear Brother (the Illustrious James Duke of York) from the Horrid and Hellish Attempts of Factious, Trayterous, Antimonarchical, Blood-thirsty, and Treasonable Men, was not for want of hearts truly thankful to God, and Loyal to our King, but because we could not mix our selves in the Address drawn up by some of the Borough, in which a few Loyal well-meaning Subjects were allured to sign with men, whose Principles (we verily believe) are not sound, and whose Practices in the late times, have given us a sufficient Demonstration, that they are neither Lovers of Monarchy, or the established Government, which (through the Blessing of Heaven, and Your Pious Care and Goodness) we now happily enjoy in our Church; separate therefore from such a medly, we, throw our selves, low before Your Majesties Feet, with fixed Resolutions to stand firm both to Your Crown and Dignity, and with the final hazard both of our Lives and Fortunes, to endeavour the Preservation of Your Royal Person, Your Heirs and lawful Successors, against the Plots and Machinations of all Rebellious, Tumultuary, and Associating Men, who seek Your Life to destroy, that God would Bless you with a long and peaceable Reign over us, to the utter shame and disappointment of Your Enemies, and Crown you at last with Glory; shall be our continual Prayers.

The following Addresses from the Counties of Anglesey and Carnarvan (whereof His Majesty was pleased to declare His Gracious Acceptance) were presented by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort; which together with those of several Counties of Wales, were prepared against his Grace's late intended Progress into those parts.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Loyal Inhabitants of Your Majesties County of Anglesey, assembled at the Great Sessions held for the said County at Bewmares, on Monday the Three and twentieth Day of July, 1683.

Great Sir,

WE Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, with hearty Acknowledgments of God's great and signal Mercies, do with enlarged Hearts and most dutiful Affections, Congratulate Your Majesties happy Deliverance from the Horrid Designs of those restlesly Seditious Monsters of Men, who most wickedly contrived Your Majesties and Your Royal Brother's Destruction, and the Subversion of this Established Government in Church and State; And as at first we received the knowledge of it with Horror and Astonishment, so we now most humbly assure Your Majesty of our constant Obedience and entire Acquiescence under Your Just and Milde Government, which we will defend to the utmost expence of our Lives and Fortunes.

And with inflamed Desires suitable thereunto, do, and shall ever pray for Your Majesties long Life and happy Reign over us, and an uninterrupted Succession in Your Royal Line.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the County of Carnarvan, presented by the Grand Inquest for the Body of the said County, at the Great Sessions held at Carnarvan the 30th day of July, 1683. with the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and the rest of the Gentry of the said County.

Great Sir,

THe tender Mercies of our good God that first graciously restored You to us, and since so oft defended and preserved Your Majesty, and Your Royal Brother from the Bloody Designs of Your Majesties and our Enemies on both hands, especially the late Horrid Conspiracy; require from us a most humble Acknowledgment; And that Testimony from Heaven, together with Your Gracious and Milde Government, have fixt in our Hearts an unalterable resolution of Duty and Obedience to Your Majesty, and Successors, according to the Precepts of our Religion, and Laws of our Church and State, against all Your Enemies whatever. We all enjoy Religion and Property, and both in Peace under You, for which we heartily bless God and thank Your Majesty.

And therefore in Gratitude as well as Duty, we praise God Almighty for what he has done. And pray for the continuance of His favour in Your Majesties long Life, and an undisturbed happy Reign and Government, as now Established over us, and our Posterity, in You and Your Royal Line for ever; In defence of which, we are ready to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

Dread Sir,

WE the Governor, the Judge, Jurats, Minister, Officers, and other Your faithful Subjects and Inhabitants of Your Island of Auregny, part of Your Antient Dutchy of Normandy, Having with Horror heard of a most impious Treason lately contrived against Your most Sacred Person, and that of His Royal Highness Your Brother, happily discovered; We have and shall ever from the bottom of our Hearts give thanks to the Divine Majesty, who by His special and miraculous Providence from time to time, keeps and preserves Your Majesty and His Royal Highness, to the happiness of all your Subjects, and to the blessing of this small Island, under Your so happy Reign; All our Welfare proceeding from and consisting entirely in Your Grace and Soveraign Goodness to us.

We humbly beg your Majesties pardon for this our boldness in making this Address and Protestation which we cannot omit in this Occasion; Therefore we humbly throw our selves at the Feet of Your sacred Majesty, declaring that we do detest and abhor all such Execrable Plots; And that we are and shall ever be ready to imploy our Lives and Estates for the preservation of Your Majesty and lawful Successors, not only against such abominable and impious Conspirators, but against whomsoever shall disturb or annoy your Government in Church or State. And we shall never cease to implore the Almighty for the continuance of His Blessings upon Your Majesty and Your Royal Family for ever.

This Address of the Island of Auregny, was Signed by all the Inhabitants thereof, and presented in French to His Majesty at Windsor, by Doctor John Saussmares, Dean of Gurnesey, Mr. Richard Beauvoir, and Mr. Charles Andros.

Lintz, September 4. On Thursday last the King of Poland arrived at Holbrun, six Miles from Vienna, where he was met by the Duke of Lorrain, accompanied with several Generals and other Persons of the first Quality; The next day the King returned the Duke of Lorrain his Visit, and a Council of War was held, after which they marched together, and Yesterday their Troops began to pass the Bridge which is laid over the Danube above Tuln. In the mean time the City of Vienna defends it self bravely; And the Duke of Lorrain has received a Letter from the Governor, dated the first Instant at nine a Clock at night, in which he gives an account that they had discovered the great Mine under the Bastion, in which they found some of the Enemies Miners, and that they took out of it 40 Quintals of Powder, each Quintal being 100 weight, and by that means had freed themselves from the assault the Turks intended to make when this Mine took effect. But that the Garison was much weakened (many dying daily of the Bloody-flux) and besides was almost wearied out with continual Duty, and therefore he prays his Highness to hasten their Relief. The Grand Visier has drawn his three Camps together, and fortifies himself. He has commanded Count Teckely, Abafii Prince of Transilvania, the Walachians, and the Moldavians, to join his Army. And yesterday arrived here a Courier with Letters from
